The News.

Our columns this morning contain full details, by telegraph, of the severe and terrible fighting in the vicinity of Fredericksburg — There can be no doubt that for the first two days the Federal army were successful and that Gen. Hooker had every reason to hope for such a victory as would demonstrate the wisdom of his plans and the wonderful courage of his troops. Nor even if compelled at last to recross the river, an account of its sudden rise threatening his communication and supplies, do we think that there is just cause to regard his return as a defeat or a repulse He had captured an immense number of prisoners, and had punished the enemy with terrific slaughter, without serious or greater disadvantage to himself than was to be anticipated, considering the magnitude of the conflict A great and almost unparalleled loss of life on both sides could not be avoided, but we cannot discover from the reports, any reason to believe that our troops suffered more than was to be expected, or to justify the apprehension, generally felt, that they met with a defeat. We cannot help believing, as well as hoping, that full tidings will prove that a substantial victory was gained, and that blows are given to the rebellion, from which it can never recover.

Boundaries of Idaho Territory —The following are the boundaries of Idaho Territory, as published among the Acts of Congress in the National Intelligencer By reference to a correct map of that section, it will be seen that these boundaries include Lewiston on the West and extending as far East as the 27th degree of longitude west of Washington, taking in the Beaver Head and Big Hole mines, Fort Benton and Fort Laramie, east of the Rocky Mountains We shall publish the entire Organic Act of that Territory as soon as we can find room to do so

Beginning at a point in the middle channel of the Snake river, where the northern boundary of Oregon intersects the same; then follow down said channel of Snake river to a point opposite the mouth of the Kooskooskia, or Clear water river, thence due north to the forty ninth parallel of latitude; thence east, along said parallel, to the twenty seventh degree of longitude west of Washington, thence south, along said degree of longitude, to the northern boundary of Colorado Territory, thence west, along said boundary, to the thirty-third degree of longitude west from Washington; thence north, along said degree to the forty second parallel of latitude; thence west, along said parallel, to the eastern boundary of the State of Oregon thence north, along said boundary, to the place of beginning

Military Movements.—Three companies of the Oregon Cavalry marched from Fort Walla Walla on their route to Lapwai, on the 4th inst. They will be present at the Nez Perces Council to be held on the 10th. With two companies of the Oregon Cavalry now at Lapwai, there will be five full companies of cavalry present at the Council. From thence, after the Council is over, Col Maury will proceed with a portion of his command to Fort Boise, taking the trail up the east side of Snake river, and taking his supplies on pack-mules. There are but two companies of troops now at Fort Walla Walla, both of which belong to the W. T. Infantry One of these will probably be sent to Fort Boise by the Grand Ronde route to guard the supply trains destined for the new fort

Poetry on Hand.—We have received from our intelligent correspondents, a large number of beautiful and instructive poems. They concern every thing in heaven, on the earth, and under the earth. They are too good to mix with common news, and therefore, we propose some day, when our columns are not quite so crowded as at present, to devote a whole paper to these proofs and fruits of genius, so that our readers may have a feast of fat things, and the authors the satisfaction of comparing their own work with that of others. We hope the writers will be patient for a little while, and if there are others who wish to put a gem in our casket we will be glad to give them a chance, if applied for soon.

Shot for Insubordination —A private of Company A, First Oregon Cavalry, named Donald McKee, was shot by Lieut Woodson of the W. T. Infantry, in the town of Walla Walla, on the night of the 3d inst. The soldier was drunk and assaulted Lieut. Smith, who was with Woodson and the patrol, when Smith ordered Woodson to fire, which resulted in McKee being shot through the abdomen. At last accounts he was not dead.

New Postmasters.—The following Postmasters have been commissioned. John Webster, Port Madison, Kitsap county, Washington Territory; Joseph U. Campbell, Lafayette, Yamhill county, Oregon, Isaac N Bush Cascades, Skamania county, Washington Territory. The following appointments have been received; Charles Welsh, Florence City Idaho Territory, John Flanagan Elk City, I T.; Joseph Patty, Oro Fino, I T.

Post Offices —New post-offices have been established at the following places Durkee ville, Idaho Territory—Clark H. Durkee, Postmaster; Mount Idaho—I T —Loyal P Brown, Postmaster The post office at Nauwauna, Lewis county, W T, has been discontinued.

News of May 5th.

Chicago May 5th —The N Y Times and Herald contain long and interesting accounts from Hooker's army. The Times correspondent states that after three days skirmishing in both sides the rebels on Saturday afternoon and evening attacked our right flank, Jackson with his whole corps of 40,000 men throwing himself impetuously on Howard's Eleventh Corps But the movement was only partially successful, and reinforcements being promptly sent by Hooker, the rebels were unable to check Howard's corps consisted of Schurz's Steinwehr's and Devens divisions The Times' correspondent states that this corps disgracefully abandoned their position behind their breastworks and rushed horror stricken towards head quarters Our right was thus completely turned, and the rebels were in a fair way of doubling us up Hooker was immediately in the saddle, and, turning to the commander of his own old corps —Berry—he shouted, "General, throw yourself into the breach and receive the enemy on your bayonets Don't fire a shot They can't see you" They rushed gloriously at double quick to the rescue, pressing forward in a horrid array of glittering steel The enemy were checked, and retired to their breast works, just abandoned by Howard's corps The batteries immediately massed on the crest of the hill, pouring in a terrific fire until far into the night. In a charge by the rebels, they took from the cowardly Dutchmen (as the Times correspondent styles them) twelve pieces of cannon The Germans fled past Hooker's headquarters in a panic. Many members of the staff, with pistol and sabre, vainly endeavored to stay their flight The artillery combat continued fiercely till midnight Hooker and his staff were all the time under the severest fire

Another Times correspondent, dating on Sunday evening says it was reported from Howard's front that the rebels were engaged all Friday night cutting a road past his right but not much attention was paid to the fact On the afternoon of Saturday it was reported by pickets on the right of Slocum's front, that wagons were seen moving all day in a westerly direction Sickles, with a heavy force, was sent to reconnoitre, when the advance fell in with the rear of Jackson's army Sickles immediately pushed on to checkmate Jackson, and soon captured his entire 23d Georgia regiment, 400 men, including the officers This movement of Sickles cut Jackson's force in two, and Gen Williams commenced a flank movement on the enemy's right, with good prospects of success It was supposed that Howard's corps (formerly Sigel's) would successfully resist Jackson's movement, but the first division assailed, under Carl Schurz almost instantly gave way, thousands throwing down their guns and streaming towards head quarters Gen Dovens' division by the demoralization of others, was unable to stand against the rebels Devens was wounded in the foot when endeavoring to rally his men Howard, with all his daring and resolution, couldn't stem the tide and the brigades of Colls Bush, Peck and McLean, remained fighting as long as possible returning in good order Of course this disaster compelled the recall of Sickles who had been vigorously at work Gen Williams division returned to find a portion of his works occupied by the enemy Sickles could not be communicated with by the route he went, and Gen Hooker ordered a night attack to restore communication Ward's brigade, aided by Best's battery, made an attack at eleven o'clock at night, which was entirely successful, and in a charge made by the brigade a portion of the artillery lost by Howard was gallantly retaken The enemy were driven back nearly a mile On that night, Saturday, our men slept on their arms.

On Sunday, at five o'clock in the morning the rebels could be plainly seen on the plank road about a mile and a half from Hooker's headquarters at Chancellor House, which had been penetrated the evening previously by shell Our line of battle was immediately formed, and in half an hour our advance became engaged. Soon battalion after battalion became engaged, the enemy advancing his infantry in overwhelming numbers, seeming determined to crush ours Sickles' and Slocum's brave men, however, held them in check, inflicting dreadful slaughter upon them. French's division was sent in on our right flank, and soon crushed that portion of the enemy's line At eight o'clock French sent his compliments to Hooker, stating that he had charged the rebels and was driving them before him. Five whole rebel divisions were driven upon Sickles, but he and his gallant soldiers held the traitors in check, taking during the day an aggregate of 2,000 prisoners The carnage was perfectly frightful Officers say that dead and wounded rebels covered the ground in heaps, the rebels literally throwing themselves upon the muzzles of our guns Gen Mott's brigade made fifteen distinct charges, and captured seven stand of rebel colors The 7th New Jersey alone captured four stand of colors and 500 prisoners The engagement lasted from 5 30 A M to 8 45 A M, when, being out of ammunition, our forces held their position for an hour at the point of the bayonet Upon being supplied they fell back in good order to Chancellor House, where the contest was again maintained with great havoc to the enemy, and a considerable loss to ourselves. The vicinity of Chancellor House was now the theatre of the fight Hooker maintained his headquarters there till ten o'clock, when it was burned by rebel shell In the meantime Hooker established a new line Our forces were withdrawn to that front, and at 11 31 A M, musketry firing ceased

The whole engagement lasted six hours, and was the most terrible of the war Our artillery slaughtered the enemy Many of our batteries lost heavily, but the guns were all saved The enemy is now no longer in our rear but directly in our front, between us and our forces in Fredericksburg We are occupying their fortifications and entrenchments The enemy has gained some ground, but at the sacrifice of one-five of his seven divisions.

On Sunday afternoon the rebels made several attempts to flank our lines several This batteries and regiments being actually destroyed in attempts to carry the apex of our position near Chancellor House, where a large quantity of our artillery is massed Our present position is impregnable from Lee has ordered that our lines must be broken at all hazards but the rebels will only destroy themselves by their attempts Our troops are perfectly cool and confident The rebel Gen Hill is reported killed Gen Berry was killed while leading his brave men

New York, May 5 —The following are additional particulars published by the city press, of the battle in Hooker's army Among the killed is Maj Gen Berry Gen Stevens of Massachusetts was wounded in the foot Gen Meade was wounded in two places, Lieut Col Scott of the 31 Wisconsin was killed Capt Templer of the 2d Regulars was killed Lieut Crosby of the 4th Regulars was killed A large number of field and company officers were killed and wounded mostly in the New York and Pennsylvania regiments

A Washington letter of Sunday, written at ten o'clock in the evening, states that Gen Sedgwick attacked the heights of Fredericksburg, gallantly carrying them by storm, capturing the 16th and 18th Mississippi regiments and one company of the New Orleans Washington Artillery with eight guns, taking over 1,000 prisoners and Gen. Gibbon planted the stars and stripes over the rebel works Our loss was moderate Gen Sedgwick after words drove the rebels back, and at six P M on Sunday had advanced to the brick church, four and a half miles towards Chancellorsville on the plank road Here he had a severe fight with Early's rebel division which was reinforced by Lee but he repulsed them, taking a lot of prisoners

The enemy are now hemmed in between Hooker and Sedgwick, the advantage being decidedly with us

The Herald says our loss in attacking the heights of Fredericksburg was about 1 000 killed and wounded

The Herald's correspondent says the battle resumed on Monday was a most desperate affair The rebels made serious and superhuman attacks at all points but were repulsed with terrible slaughter Our forces destroyed the bridge in the rear of the rebels across the Massaponax, thus completely cutting off all retreat to Richmond

The Post prints the following

Latest from Hooker's Army The battle of Sunday was renewed on Monday morning. The enemy appeared to have forces equal in number to our own His succeeding attacks were made with desperate spirit The destruction of the railroad bridges over the Massaponax and Matrapanax creeks south of Fredericksburg has certainly been accomplished and the road to Richmond thus cut off to the enemy

Eight hundred prisoners, including the entire strength of the 23d Georgia regiment were brought to Washington this morning They were well clad and not one looked as though he had not had enough to eat

Cairo May 5 —A steamer from Vicksburg on Thursday night reports that on Thursday morning (April 30th) Gen Sherman, with a fleet of transports accompanied by several gunboats passed up the Yazoo river and made an attack on the rebel batteries In the afternoon, several more transports followed up with troops on board The report is that Sherman has landed at precisely the same place landed at when the former attack was made Each transport is armed with three guns in order to meet any emergency that may arise Cannonading and the rattle of musketry was distinctly heard at Young's Point, from nine o'clock on Thursday morning until long after night

It is learned from a gentleman who left New Carthage on Wednesday, that a very heavy force had landed in Mississippi, some miles above Grand Gulf Our gunboats had been shelling the latter place for several days

Chicago May 5 —The Chattanooga Rebel of the 1st contains the following

Jackson Miss April 29 —Communication with Grand Gulf has been established. For six hours and a half there was a continuous firing Too Yankee gunboats have retired They fired in all 3,000 shot and shell temporarily disabling one of our guns Our loss is three killed and ten wounded Two [Federal] boats were apparently injured but the damage is unknown Their disabled gunboats, after trying unsuccessfully to pass up, now lie three miles below on the Louisiana shore, five miles above Grand Gulf

Suffolk Va, May 4th — Yesterday morning Gen Peck sent a force of infantry, cavalry and artillery across the Nansemond at Suffolk to make a reconnoissance They advanced cautiously up the Petersburg turnpike, and when two miles out, encountered the enemy's rifle pits, which were thoroughly manned The 89th New York and the 8th New Hampshire made a spirited and successful charge upon the rebel works, carried them and, after heavy resistance, the enemy retreated leaving their dead and wounded During this time the gunboats were playing on the enemy, doing good execution on the sharpshooters secreted in the woods In the afternoon our troops came upon a masked battery, 2½ miles above Suffolk, and at 4 o'clock, Davis's battery and gunboat Briggs commenced shelling it out. After 30 minutes the rebels returned the fire, which continued until sunset, when the enemy's battery was silenced. Gen. Getty crossed the Nansemond four miles below Suffolk, and encountered the enemy, and it was rumored and believed that he had captured eight guns and a large number of prisoners This however, needs confirmation Scouts also went within six miles of the Summertown and Edenton roads, but discovered nothing of the enemy The rifle pits on the Southgray road were vacated yesterday afternoon

Washington, May 5th —More than 4,000 prisoners have already arrived here

New York, May 6th —The Tribune's correspondent with Gen Hooker, writing at sunrise on Monday says. The guns are already thundering on our left, and it is believed that to day will prove to us at disastrous to the rebels Over 5,000 rebel prisoners have already been brought in, and they report that Jackson is in command of the rebel army, and that reinforcements have been sent them from North Carolina and the Peninsula Our loss is heavy

Another correspondent with Gen Sedgwick, dating his letter on Monday morning says The battle opened at daylight and is still going on, Hill is at the extreme left and Gibbon's division second. The Second Corps returned to Falmouth last night, and Hall's brigade has gone over All non-combatants are leaving except the surgeons The crackling of musketry is near, and rifle pits are being erected on our side of the river to protect the brigades

The Times's correspondent with Gen Hooker, writing on Sunday night, says Gen Howard is reorganizing the Eleventh Corps, which has been placed on duty again Gen Averill with his cavalry command reported to Gen Hooker on Sunday afternoon, having been as far south as Rapidan Station where he destroyed the bridge on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad and drove the rebel Stuart out of Culpepper Gen Averill has received instructions to perform further and important work

The Times's correspondent with Gen Sedgwick, in a postscript dated Monday forenoon, says A considerable body of rebels have made their appearance below Fredericksburg, and seem to have taken position near Gen. Sedgwick's corps This force was judged to be from 5 to 7 regiments, but his attempts to take the hills thus far, have been unsuccessful

The World's correspondent writing at 10 o'clock on Monday says Gen Sedgwick has passed on towards Gen Hooker leaving one division to guard the heights They have been attacked by the rebels and are in danger of losing their position and abandoning Fredericksburg altogether

The Herald's correspondent writing on Monday night, says Heavy firing in the direction of Chancellorville has continued all the morning, and it is to be hoped that the rebels are getting it at last as bad as when Burnside's noble divisions fought them. Our sick are lying in the tents but small losses are coming up to remove them

There was no fight on Tuesday of any consequence Sharpshooters were quite active and the artillery opened occasionally but the results were rather unimportant The enemy has evidently massed his army to-night with a view of is believed, to cross above and attack us on the flank and rear High water will however frustrate that movement Three pontoons disappeared with Hamilton Crossing Some fears have been entertained that the rebels would make a demonstration across the river below Fredericksburg

Great numbers of our wounded have fallen into the hands of the enemy. Our dead on the battlefield of Tuesday are still unburied, and the wounded are undoubtedly dying to great numbers for want of attention. Dr Johnson Medical Inspector of the Army, volunteered to go over with a corps of surgeons to take charge of the wounded He will probably be sent across as soon as practicable

Hooker was very much depressed last night He held a council of war with the Commanding Generals to whether it would be best longer stay in its present position would be possible for the army Rain is falling fast and the river is rising with rapidity

Falmouth, Va, May 6—10 A M—Three bridges were swept away in the railroad from the Aquia last night Building parties were at work all night Trains are again running It is rumored that the enemy's cavalry have crossed over upon the northern neck, and are advancing east only to-day to this place A force has been sent to meet them Everything is quiet on the other side The pickets have not been fired upon and all is still rapidly rising Heavy cannonading is heard in the direction of United States Ford

Cincinnati May 6 —Considerable excitement exists in Dayton in consequence of the arrest of Vallandigham At last night a mass of citizens assembled in front of Vallandigham's residence and fired a salute in honor of the occasion, several of which were answered The telegraph lines were cut down and bridges burned to stop the passage of troops The troops, however, arrive at a late hour and put a stop to the disturbance Burnside has declared martial law in Montgomery county Vallandigham's arrest is the county seat The Dayton Empire declares that Vallandigham's arrest has been suppressed and the editor imprisoned Vallandigham is being tried to-day before a military court The proceedings are secret It is understood that he declined pleading and protested against the proceedings He denied the jurisdiction of the court and took the ground that he was not amenable to military law This was denied

Cairo May 7 —Lieut Col Estep lately a lieutenant of the 9th Illinois cavalry, on a scouting expedition, came upon a party of rebels near Tunica The latter fled in great panic, and the Federals returned with 9 head of cattle and 60 mules

Cairo May 7 — Upon the 4th inst several of the secessionists of this city were arrested yesterday, but will probably be sent south in a few days The wife of Gen Pillow and the wife of the postmaster it is also said will be sent to the rebel lines Several secessionists have come into the military authorities of late, who in days gone by were living fat on rebel sympathy

Cairo May 7 —A detachment of the 3d Iowa cavalry, on a scout from Helena Ark on April 20th fell into an ambush Four A retreat was ordered, but the enemy pursued in numbers A number of our men were left dead on the field and 4 were captured The enemy numbered from 800 to 1000, principally negroes

The Jackson Miss Appeal of the 28th says that Col Wilson on arrival at Bazelhurst 56 miles from Natchez Baton Rouge of course to be his destination

Memphis May 6 —The Tribune has a correspondence telegram of the 5th as follows Deserters report that communication between Vicksburg Richmond Charleston and Tullahoma has been cut Neither newspapers nor telegrams are received by Bragg's army from those places for several days

Cairo May 6 —The steamer from Memphis reports that Sherman's expedition up the Yazoo has returned to Young's Point Their movement was only a feint to attract the attention of the enemy and draw their troops away from the north of Vicksburg where Grierson is operating The gunboats that accompanied the expedition engaged the batteries at Haines's Bluff The Choctaw was severely damaged by rebel shot, one shell penetrating her starboard bow through the turret The wheel house was burst through by the flying shot Our loss is reported at 30 killed and wounded

The steamer Golden Era from below while coming to was fired into by guerrillas with cannon 6 shots passed through the wheelhouse and cabin No one was injured The gunboat Cricket coming along shortly after, scattered the enemy

WILL MAKE THE SEASON AT THE STABLE OF SHERLOCK & BACON, a short distance below Portland, and will be in the vicinity of marestands. His season to commence on the 15th of April and end July 1st.

EMIGRANT is a beautiful chestnut sorrel six years old this spring, stands 15 hands high and weighs 1112 pounds. His pedigree is well authenticated and is as follows: He was sired by Hambletonian Jr, he by Old Black Hawk, he by Old Black Hawk of Vermont. His dam was Dark Nancy, she by Commodore Chauncey's Messenger, he by Commodore Chauncey's Messenger of New York

Mares from a distance will find good pasturage at $1 per week. All care taken to prevent accidents but will not be responsible for any SHERLOCK BACON & TITUS

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I cannot sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease

If you have Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored If you have a painful swelling bathe the part freely and you will soon relieve pain and the swelling will be reduced

If you have a severe tooth-ache apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time it will stop the pain instantly

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side Back or Kidneys bathe the parts affected in it morning and night and at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally

If a Mother has a caked breast apply the Panacea as often as it can be borne

I can freely recommend the Pain Panacea to all who have never taken it and Manufacturers

If you have a [illegible] Horse or Cattle [illegible] will find the following [illegible] and heal the wound in a short time

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes hired help, Rents Drayage &c necessary to carry on his business but no farmer merchant mechanic or any person has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st 1862 so that on the ending of December 31st 1862 everybody should make up a record of their income gathered for that year And as many sources of income such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks Insurance Stock Savings Banks Interest &c, (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed it will therefore become necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no disputes with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring the dividend

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may outside of his business appear all and even more than his profits in the business necessitate but no tax will on business as profits except the $600 And so with the contrary all over $600 must be taxed though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863 and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863 And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid and for ten days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

HEMPFIELD MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is my CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of all these complaints. ABEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq. of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you first gave it to the world, and believe it the best medicine for its purposes ever made. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

BRUNSWICK, ME., Feb. 9, 1856.

BROTHER AYER. I will cheerfully certify that your CHERRY PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the worst diseases of children. We of your fellow-Booth appreciate your skill, and commend your remedies to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 24 Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks. I took many medicines without relief, finally tried your PECTORAL, by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs, less than one half of the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the best, as well as the best in every way, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MIDDLESEX, PA., Feb. 6, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing wonders in this section. It has relieved several from alarming cases of consumption, and is now curing a man who has been for an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 8, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most startling proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no doubt can reach, but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

AYER'S HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 1, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL, I feel it a duty and a pleasure to let you know what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for me. She had been three months laboring under the most distressing symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could give her gave much relief. She was steadily failing until Dr. [illegible] of this city where we have come for advice, recommended the use of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do yours, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as well as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls you blessed.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SUTPHEN, for

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high character and virtues of it.—Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have enabled their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable trials have proved these PILLS have no equal. Their virtues are searching, and there is scarcely a disorder of the human system which they do not reach and cure. Every one knows what is the best thing to do when he is sick, and how he ought to be relieved. These PILLS do what is best, and do it surely. They are the safest and most reliable remedy which can be employed by those who need a purgative. They are safe and pleasant to take, and no one who has once tried them will refuse to take them when they are required. They are the cheapest cathartic in the market, because they are the most effectual in their operation. Every dose of this medicine is curative. It never fails to cleanse the blood and set the machinery of life right, when it is disordered. It will purify the blood, and thereby cure many complaints which it would not be supposed could reach, such as Dropsies, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia, Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low
